ECONOMIC FORUM

Warsaw, 8th March, 2013

Mr. Eduardo Cabrita,

Chairman,

The Committee on Budget, Finance and Public Administration,

Parliament, Portugal

Dear Mr. Eduardo Cabrita

On behalf of the Institute for Eastern Studies and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Hungary I am honored to invite you to the 6th Europe-Ukraine Forum that will be held in Budapest 12-14 May, 2013. This time a leading theme of it will be: EU - Ukraine: Priorities of Cooperation. New Impulses, Old Challenges.

Preparations for the Forum were taking place against the background of the latest domestic trends within Ukraine as well as recent shifts in EU policy towards Ukraine. The following issues (among others: EU-Ukraine Association Agreement, energy security, economic reforms and restructuring processes, democratic development and investment attractiveness) crucial for the future of Ukraine in Europe are to be the subjects of the 6th Europe-Ukraine Forum.

We would highly appreciate your effort to be among our honorable guests and participants in the discussion panel entitled:

Ukraine's financial market – today's solutions vs. tomorrow's challenges
13.00 – 14.30

Moderator:

Mr. Yves-Michel Riols, Journalist, Le Monde daily, France

Invited Speakers:

Mr. Hrant Bagratyan, MP, Parliament of Armenia, Prime Minister (1993–1996 )

Mr. Jiří Klumpar , CEO, Czech Export Import Bank

Mr. Shpek Roman, Member of the Council, National Bank of Ukraine

Mr. Morgan Williams, President, US-Ukraine Business Council, USA

Mr. Mikolaj Dowigielewicz, Vice Governor , Council of Europe Development Bank, France

ECONOMIC FORUM

Like in the previous years, the Forum will be a distinct meeting place for government officials and regulators, prominent politicians, business leaders and experts from most of the EU members, Ukraine and other countries.

We would appreciate confirmation of your attendance by March 20th, 2013.

Yours sincerely,
