

To the Members of the national parliamentary Delegations to the Plenary of the Conference on the Future of Europe

Dear Member,

The Conference on the Future of Europe is approaching its decisive moments, as is the work of its Plenary, one of the key features of the Conference.

One of the main aims, emanating from ideas raised on the digital platform, in the Citizens panels, as well as in the AFCE Inter-parliamentary committee meeting on 9 November 2021, in the COSAC Plenary on 30 November 2021 and in the COSAC Chairpersons on 14 January 2022, is to explore ways to strengthen European democracy.

In order to achieve this goal and to reinforce the parliamentary dimension of the Conference, We have the pleasure of inviting you to the joint meeting of the parliamentary Delegations to the Conference Plenary, scheduled on 9 February 2022 (16:15 to 18:45).

The aim would be to discuss issues of common interest to the Delegations concerning the future of the Union, as outlined in the enclosed draft agenda, with a view to adopting a possible common parliamentary position thereon, in the frame of the Conference.

Due to the sanitary prevention measures, which are still in force in the European Parliament, Members of the delegations of national Parliaments will be invited to participate remotely. Interpretation will be provided in all EU official languages (with the exception of Irish and Maltese). Practical and technical details concerning the connection regarding the meeting will be forwarded in due course to your Parliament's services for relations with the European Parliament.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to accept this invitation, and we are looking forward to your participation in this event on 9 February 2022 and to a constructive and fruitful debate.

Yours sincerely,

Guy VERHOFSTADT

Jean-François RAPIN

Pierre-Alexandre ANGLADE

Annex: Draft agenda of the joint meeting of the parliamentary Delegations to the Conference on the Future of Europe Plenary (09 February 2022)