Dear Madam Speaker,
Dear Mr Speaker,

The European Union heads of state and government recently took a ground-breaking decision, when they reached agreement on the next Multiannual Financial Framework and a European recovery plan, thus paving the way for economic growth over the coming years.

This makes it even more urgent for us as parliamentarians to also engage in dialogue on the priorities we want to set for European recovery, the role to be played by the European Central Bank in the interaction between monetary and fiscal policy, how we can make European fiscal rules future-proof and the European lessons to be learnt from the coronavirus crisis regarding trade, supply chains and investments.

The Interparliamentary Conference on Stability, Economic Coordination and Governance in the European Union could therefore not be taking place at a better time. I am very pleased to invite the delegates from your parliament to Berlin from 11 to 13 October 2020. I would be most grateful if you could forward the attached invitation from the chairman of the Conference to the members of the responsible committees at your parliament.

Yours sincerely,
