Dear Mr Tiago Brandão Rodrigues,

On behalf of the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe, I have the honour of inviting you to the 29th edition of the Lisbon Forum on the theme “Human Rights, Environment and Economic Crimes: youth at the forefront” that will take place in Lisbon, Portugal, on 16 - 17 October 2023.

Since 1994, the Lisbon Forum of the North-South Centre is a chief yearly event that provides a platform for interregional exchange between representatives of government, parliament, regional and local authorities, and civil society – the quadrilogue - on the global role of the Council of Europe in the areas of human rights, democracy, and the rule of law. In line with the mandate of the North-South Centre, the Forum has a global vocation, with priority focus on the Southern Mediterranean region and Africa.

Building on the Council of Europe's priorities as defined at the Reykjavik Summit in May 2023, this year's Forum will focus on the linkages between economic crime, human rights, and the environment, with an emphasis on the role that young people play as agents of change in the fight against corruption for the protection of the environment. The Lisbon Forum 2023 is the first major milestone of the new strategy of the Council of Europe to strengthen the links between its Neighbourhood policy with the Southern Mediterranean and the North-South Centre, making full use of the added value of both.

This event is organised in the framework of the North-South Centre's project “All Informed, All Concerned” funded by the governments of Portugal and Spain, with the support of the joint programme of the European Union and the Council of Europe “Protecting human rights, the rule of law and democracy through shared standards in the Southern Mediterranean” (South Programme V), co-financed by both organisations and implemented by the Council of Europe.

We would greatly appreciate it if you could confirm your participation with the Secretariat of the North-South Centre by filling in our online registration form. Our team will then provide you with additional information about the event and assist in facilitating your participation.

Enclosed to this letter you will also find the concept note and draft programme of the event.

Our secretariat remains at your disposal to provide you with further information via lisbon.forum@coe.int or +351 21 358 40 30.

Convinced that your participation will greatly contribute to the success of the Forum, I look forward to meeting you soon.

Kind regards,

Adelino SILVA
Executive Director
North-South Centre of the Council of Europe
