

THE HELLENIC PARLIAMENT FOUNDATION
FOR PARLIAMENTARISM AND DEMOCRACY

Athens, 12 May 2022

Mr Alexandre Quintanilha
President of the Parliamentary Commission on Education and Science
Parliament, Portugal

Dear Mr President,
Dear Mr Quintanilha,

I am the Head of the Department of Public Relations and Communication of the Hellenic Parliament Foundation. I am writing regarding the conference Digital technologies and the stakes for representative democracy to which you have kindly agreed to participate. The conference is co-organized by the Hellenic Parliament Foundation, the European Parliament, the Cypriot House of Representatives, the Estonian Parliament, the Italian Chamber of Deputies, the Portuguese Chamber of Deputies and the Spanish Congress of Deputies. The conference aims to bring together people of academia and Parliament officials to shed light on digital reforms the dilemmas and/or opportunities regarding political culture, transparency and democratic accountability for the upcoming decades. The conference will be held in Athens and Nafplion during 10-12 June 2022. Attached to this letter you shall find a provisional programme and the list of speakers.

I would like to ask for your advice regarding practical arrangements for the conference. You are being asked to speak for about 15'. I would be grateful if you could check the spelling of your name and the title of your paper at the draft programme, and correct any mistake. The Hellenic Parliament Foundation will provide for accommodation and hospitality, but we would need your advice regarding dietary requirements.

I should be grateful if you could share this information with me, by 6 May 2022, as well as the date/time of your arrival in Athens. My contact details are: Vicky Douska, tel.: +30 210 373 52 41; e-mail: vdouska@parliament.gr. If you have additional questions or preferences please do not hesitate to contact me.

I am confident that our conference shall provide us a unique opportunity to share views and knowledge.

We look forward to welcoming you to Athens.

Yours sincerely,

Vicky DOUSKA
